

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

Castro Still Holds 27 Yanks

By ED EDSTROM

N. Y. Journal-American Washington Correspondent
With Hearst Headline Service

WASHINGTON. April 17.—Official U. S. sources reported today Fidel Castro's Cuban regime is still holding 27 American citizens on charges of "counter-revolutionary activities."

It is for this group that Brooklyn lawyer James B. Donovan, who has achieved freedom for many Americans held by Castro, hopes to begin negotiations within a month.

Held at the Isle of Pines under a sentence of 30 years:

Thomas Lewis Baker, 30, a native of Donaldsville, Ga.; James D. Beane, 34, native of North Carolina; George Richard Beck, 26, native of Massachusetts; Antonio Garcia Crews; Rafael Siero del Pino, 37, native of Cuba; Pedro Fuentes Cid, 24.

Also: Alford Eugene Gibson, served at the Isle of Pines

26, native of North Carolina; Donald Joe Greene, 29, native of Canada; Richard Allen Pedcoraro, 30, place of birth unknown; Leonard L. Schmidt, 24, native of Chicago, and Austin F. Young Jr., 42, native of Indianapolis.

Held at Oriente Province prison under 30-year sentence is Vicar Guillermo.

Under 20-year sentence at the Isle of Pines are: Juan Pedro Koop, 56; Gilberto Rodriguez-Trevander, 42, and native of Cuba.

A 12-year sentence is being

Alberto Herman Sanchez.

Held at the Isle of Pines under 10-year sentences are:

Leslie Norman Bradley, 35, native of Minneapolis; Daniel Cartwell, 45, native of Ashland, Pa.; Eustace H. Danzinger, 38, native of Cleveland; John Robert Gentile, 31, native of Cleveland; Joaquin Angel Ossario, 43, native of Cuba; Darío Fernando Prohías Belli, 44, native of Cuba; and Edmund Konrad Transky, 33, native of Boston.

Undetermined sentences are being served in unidentified Cuban prisons by:

Jack O'Jalvo, 48, native of New York; Joseph Anthony Mazzoni, 48, native of New York; John M. Sprillo, 38, native of San Pedro, Calif.; Francisco Trujillo, 30, native of Cuba; and Ramon Villalba, 42, native of Cuba.